 PLATE 02 · BOILERPLATE

Describe it in one line, or two hundred words

Four approved descriptions. Use them as written, or trim; please keep the city and country counts current with the site.

One line ≈ 20 WORDS

Never Roam Alone is a free travel companion with practical city guides for 893 cities in 197 countries, for solo travelers, couples, families and groups alike.

Short ≈ 50 WORDS

Never Roam Alone is a free travel companion for anyone planning a trip, whether you roam alone, as a couple or in a group. Every one of its 893 city guides covers the practical things first: the best neighborhoods to stay in, real daily costs, safety and walkability scores, how to get from the airport, connectivity, day trips, and advice from travelers and locals who know the place.

Medium ≈ 100 WORDS

Never Roam Alone is a free travel companion for every kind of traveler: individuals, couples, families and groups. Its 893 city guides, spanning 197 countries, answer the questions people actually ask before they book: how long to stay, which neighborhood to sleep in, what a day really costs, how safe and walkable the city is, whether cards work, what the phone situation is, and how to get in from the airport. Around the guides sit free planning tools: an interactive world map, a Destination Finder that matches cities to your budget and season, side-by-side city comparisons, a month-by-month "where to go" guide, and Ask A Roamer, where real travelers answer real questions.

Long ≈ 200 WORDS

Never Roam Alone is a free travel companion for anyone planning a trip, whether that is one person, a couple, a family or a group of friends. The site's promise is in the name: wherever you go, and whoever you go with, you carry the collected knowledge of travelers and locals who have already been there.

At its center are 893 city guides covering 197 countries. Each guide is organized the way a traveler thinks: how long to stay, when to go, which neighborhoods to sleep in (with lodging at every price tier), what a day really costs in local currency, how safe and walkable the city is, how comfortable it feels to explore (including dedicated solo-comfort and women-traveling-solo ratings), how to get in from the airport and around town, what the phone and Wi-Fi situation is, which plug to pack, and which day trips are worth the train ticket. Guides also carry top sights, upcoming events, common phrases, and first-hand "Traveler's Take" and "Local's Perspective" notes.

Around the guides are free planning tools: an interactive world map sized by annual visitors, a Destination Finder that matches cities to your budget, travel time and season, side-by-side city comparisons, a monthly "where to go" guide, underrated picks, a trip planner, and Ask A Roamer, a Q&A answered by travelers who have been there. The interface is available in English, Spanish, French, Italian and Chinese.

The mark and the wordmark

Two figures on a path under the mountains, inside an olive ring. The wordmark is hand-lettered in Amatic SC; the tagline sits beneath it in letter-spaced caps.

SAND / CARD

Do • PLEASE

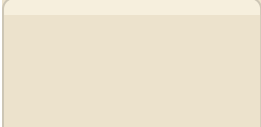

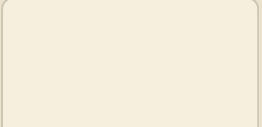

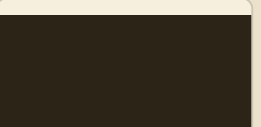

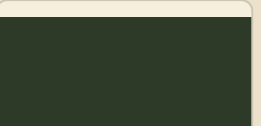

- Use the supplied files; don't redraw or retrace the mark.
- Keep clear space around the mark at least the height of the figures.
- Show it at 32 px tall or larger on screen.
- Place it on sand, white, or a photo with enough contrast.
- Set the wordmark in Amatic SC Bold, Rust, when you need text next to it.

Don't • THANKS

- Recolor the mark, or put it in a single flat color.
- Add shadows, outlines, gradients or effects.
- Stretch, rotate or crop it.
- Put it inside another shape, or lock it up with other logos.
- Use it to imply endorsement without written agreement.

Sand, ink, rust and olive

The palette comes from paper maps and trail signage. Sand is the ground; rust carries the wordmark and calls to action; olive is the mark and primary buttons; brass is for badges and small highlights. Click a swatch to copy its hex.

⊕ PLATE 07 · TYPOGRAPHY

Three faces, three jobs

All three are free on Google Fonts. Amatic SC appears only in the wordmark and for the one emphasized word in a headline, never for running text.

NEVER ROAM ALONE

Amatic SC Bold

Wordmark, and the single emphasized word in a headline ("roam"). Always in Rust.

Fraunces 600 / 700

Headlines, display type and big numbers. Tight leading, slight negative tracking.

Neighborhoods, real costs, safety and solo-comfort scores, connectivity, day trips and advice from travelers who have been there.

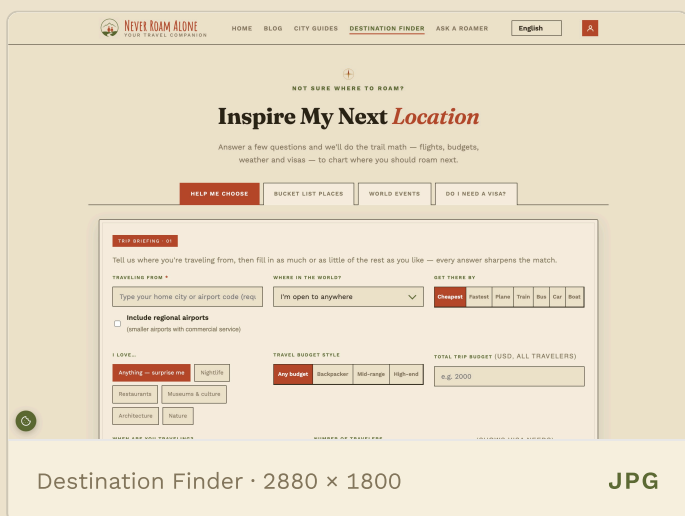

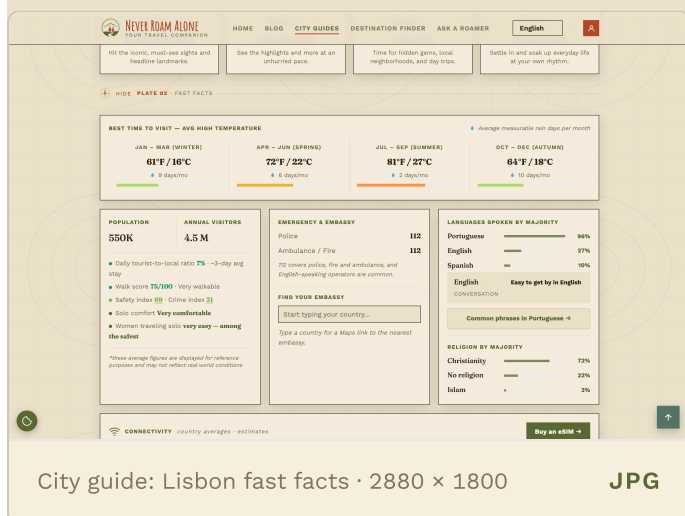

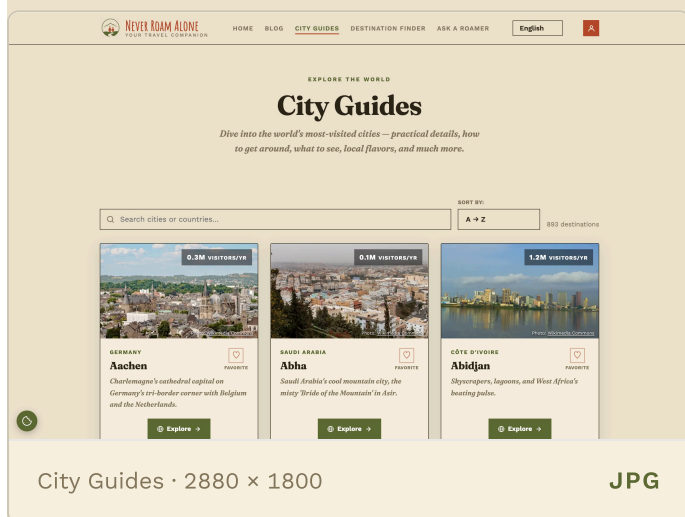

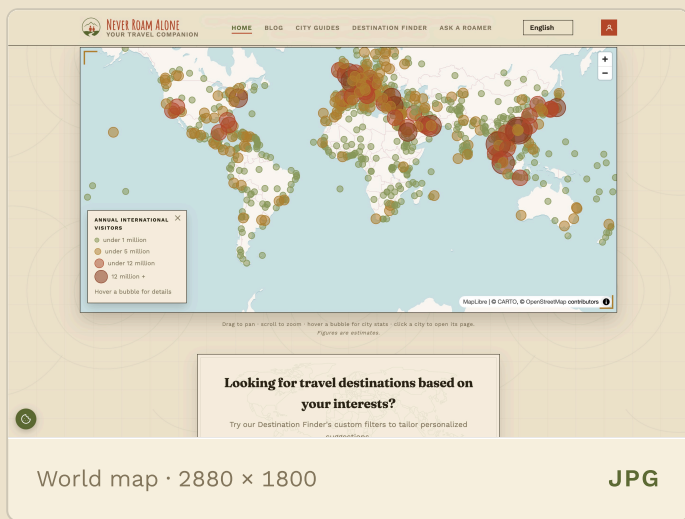

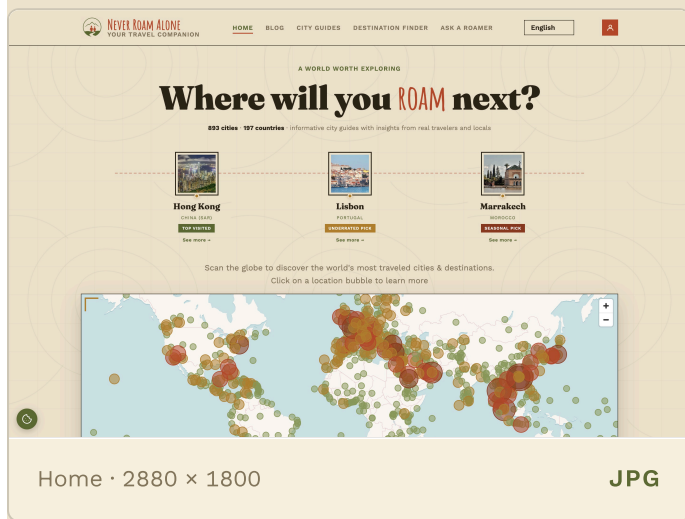

Work Sans 400 / 600

Body copy, labels and interface. Uppercase labels get 0.16 to 0.22 em of letter-spacing.

Google Fonts: Amatic SC, Fraunces and Work Sans in one selection.

Five ways in for press and creators

- 01 One site, 893 cities: how one free travel companion covers 197 countries with the same practical checklist for every city.
- 02 The solo-comfort score: the site's dedicated solo-travel strand, and which cities rate best for exploring alone.
- 03 Ask A Roamer and the Trusted Traveler program: advice from people who have actually been there, not from an algorithm.
- 04 Where to go this month: a data-driven monthly shortlist built from weather and festival data.
- 05 The practical stuff nobody covers: plug types, SIM prices, card acceptance and airport transfers, city by city.
